BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, JAN. 15, 1864.

"THE UNION," established in 1814—Whole No. 2,651.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843—Whole No. 1,030.

Published Semi-Weekly—
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

FOR PRESENT.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

For valuable Property, see our Real Estate head.

Messrs. A. N. and A. P. Meyler have opened a Banker and Broker's office at No. 6, Wall St., New York City.

Some of our distant subscribers having asked for our CARRIER'S version of the affairs of last year, we shall (with leave) copy his Address in our next.

The late term of cold has been very severe, in most parts of our country. The soldiers, particularly exposed have suffered largely.

The Copperhead Commissioners of Lycoming county would not allow the White Slaves to have the Court House, but they went to a church house, which was crowded, and a collection of over $100 taken for free schools.

All the Union Members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and the Union League of Philadelphia, have united in a commendation of ABRAHAM LINCOLN for next President. In this, they give expression to the irresistible tide of feeling of the masses.

After being long lectured thereto by Judge Jordan, the Grand Jury of Northumberland county have recommended the erection of a new Court House, at a cost not exceeding $25,000—Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars. They also recommend that the borough of Sunbury subscribe $5,000 as a donation for the erection of the same.

A correspondent in the Army of the Potomac, of Democratic antecedents, in a recent letter to us, says:

"Do you think Old Abe will be a candidate for re-election? I feel confident he can pull almost a unanimous army vote. He is decidedly popular with the soldiers. All look upon him as a good and sincere man. I know one vote he will get, at least, if I should be spared through this war."—Reading Journal.

There were fifty members of the Union County Teachers' Institute present at the recent meeting in Millburg. Interesting exercises by the various members, and Messrs. Wynn of Lewisburg and Bates of Harrisburg also made addresses. The surplus funds were directed to be invested in a Teachers' Library. Officers for next year:

President—J. H. Smith. Vice Pres.—Annie Rodenbaugh, Cor. Sec.—Bee See—James Marston. Sec. Sec.—C. E. Haus. Treasurer—Wilson Leiser. Ex. Com.—J. A. Owens, S. B. Hoffman, Roxy A. Ellis.

Isaac Davis, L. D. D., of Worcester, Mass., is one of the honest men in that State, but voted the Democratic ticket until this winter. We guess, after reading the following from his speech at a late war meeting, that he won't vote this way again unless the party turns Abolitionist:

"Allusions have been made by the subject who has just taken his seat, to the subject of slavery. I don't propose to say anything about that matter. It is an institution I abhor and loathe. As an institution it is between the upper and another millstone, and will be ground to powder. If this foul blot is erased we will for ever shout glory! hallelujah! I have no sympathy for that patriot who will do nothing because Lincoln or his cabinet do not do just right."

Among the paroled prisoners who recently arrived at Annapolis from Richmond are J. Hunt and A. Prowant, Co. D, 150th Pa. Vols.—Capt. Douglas's company.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 13, 1864.

In the House, Mr. Orwig read in place a bill to attach Union and Snyder counties to the Middle District of the Supreme Court of Penn'a.

In Senate, the Cops stave off any further progress in business. In the absence of Speaker Penney, Mr. Johnson is very satisfactorily occupying the chair as Speaker pro tem.

Mr. Work, of Ind., one of the Senate officers, is called to his home by death in the family. Your Mr. Neibert, once an officer in each branch, died suddenly. He was well cared for where he died, and the officers accompanied his remains from the house of the kind lady, on Second St., to the Railway Depot.

The County Superintendents have been holding a State meeting, but I have not been able to attend.

Jan. 14.

In the arrangement of Committees in the House, yesterday, Mr. Orwig is placed on Ways and Means, Judiciary (General), Corporations, and Printing.

Mr. Baisbach on Banks, Public Buildings, Railroads.

Mr. Purdy on Claims.

The morning papers announce the death of Maj. Bruce Cameron, son of Gen. Simon Cameron, aged 38 years—and of Miss Margaret Cunkle, a most estimable Christian and charitable lady, aged 63 years.

Fifty steamers are lying at Cairo unable to move on account of the ice. One vessel, the Gladiator, has been cut through and sunk.

Small Pox is very troublesome in Washington. Senator Bowden, of Virginia, and Mr. Harris, the Democratic Congressman from Maryland, have both died with that horrible disease, which vaccination only can cure by preventing its spread.

Major Cole, commanding in West Virginia, was attacked on Sunday morning by Mosby's rebels were driven off. We lost two men killed and thirteen wounded. The rebels left four dead in camp.

Not long since three Union soldiers were murdered by guerrillas near Moberly, Tenn. General Thomas has assessed the rebel sympathizers living within ten miles of the scene of the assassination in the sum of $30,000, and has ordered the money to be divided between the families of the murdered men.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 12.—A heavy cavalry fight occurred near Strawberry Plains on Sunday last. The enemy were repulsed with serious loss. Gen. Longstreet has been heavily reinforced from the armies of Gen. Lee and Johnston. Forrest has been badly handled in West and Middle Tennessee, but has managed to escape with most of his command. The army here is in good condition. We have plenty to eat. The weather is fearfully cold, but there is little sickness.

SENTENCED.—Zeno Kelly, of New Bedford, Mass., convicted of fitting out the ship Tahamoro for the slave trade, has been sentenced for four years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of five thousand dollars.
